Disqualification:

During competition, we place great emphasis on fairness and environmental protection. Anyone who is unsportsmanlike (shortcuts, disregard of the official instructions, leaving the marked route, ignoring the nature: Throw TRASH in the designated waste bins!) is disqualified by the race management without exception.

Equipment:

Trail shoes, 1.5 l drink, first aid kit + rescue cover, raincoat, hat + gloves, activated mobile phone with stored emergency number (00436646384883), self-fed meals eg. gels or bars have to be marked with start number. This equipment is valid for the Bizau Ultra Trail and is based on the instructions of the International Trailrunning Association and will be checked before the start.

Liability:

By submitting the entry, each participant agrees with the conditions of competition and conduct. It is to be noted that the athlete mainly moves in alpine terrain and must be aware of the risk of injury during falls. Furthermore, the provisions of the Road Traffic Regulations apply. No liability is assumed for theft and other damages. The start is on your own responsibility, therefore the participant also has to take care of his physical fitness himself. Eligible athletes at the Bizau Ultra Traillauf are all athletes born 2001 and earlier. Furthermore, the participant agrees to make the film and picture material, which is made during the event, fully available to the organizer, eg. it can be used for advertising and marketing purposes.

Organizational:

The two events take place in all weather conditions. However, the organizer reserves the right to prematurely terminate, reduce or alter the course in the case of "danger in default" without claiming to refund the nominal fee (eg storms, force majeure).

The instructions of the organizer and the correspondingly identified helpers must be followed without exception. The organizer is entitled to disqualify the competitors and to take them out of the competition in the case of acts that disturb the course of the race, endanger the safety of the other participants or themselves. Medical assistants are entitled to protect the participant from the race with appropriate health signs.

In the case of any kind of non-participation, withdrawal from the application is not possible. There is no claim for a refund of the nominal fee.

We wish all participants a lot of fun and a fair and successful competition!
